A native of Beaver, PA, Jane Shear attended the College of Wooster in Wooster, Ohio, on a non-music major scholarship, where she majored in chemistry. After a change of heart, she decided to try her hand at trumpet performance and is currently finishing the Artist Diploma program at Duquesne University. She studies with George Vosburgh and is active in all music ensembles at Duquesne.

(A special thanks to Ron Fedin and Judy Yeck for their help with the video and luncheons.)
